Always type ultra thin panty liner provides you free care the whole day, fresh and clean, carefree. Newly designed breathable back sheet provides comfortable and drier feel. Top sheet can be replaced with non-woven surface or dry perforated film surface. Ultra slim can be made with 0.5mm. They are absorbent, comfortable, and discreet enough to fit under the closest fitting outfit. They have a good adhesive backing so they stay in place well. They are easy to dispose of too. You can either tear the edge, so that the seal of the liner is broken and then flush down the toilet, or wrap them and place them in the bin. The outer wrapping flushes away easily too.

An always carefree panty liner is an absorbent piece of material used for feminine hygiene. In some places, it is spelled "pantyliner" or called a "panty shield". It is worn in the gusset of a woman's panties. The purpose of panties liner include: absorbency for daily vaginal discharge, light menstrual flow, slight urine leaks and others. The quilted construction of panties liner makes absorption quick. Its central part should keep in dry and both sides of it soft. Our breathable and carefree type has many excellences. It has newly designed breathable back sheet which can effectively evacuate the dampness. Our cotton and ultrathin type has elegant embossed pattern designs of the web and slightly perfumed which make you more carefree. Except keeping in good mood, another attention is that you need enough nutrients in menstruation instead of eat over-cold, acrid foods.

As a special pantyliners supplier, we can supply various of types with competitive price and good quality, such as: cotton panty liners, breathable panty liners, carefree pantyliners, organic, disposable,, ultra thin and other series.
